A 3D rendering of a dark, hexagonal lattice structure. The structure is composed of a grid of horizontal and vertical lines, creating a perspective effect that recedes into the distance. The hexagons are dark gray, and the lines are a lighter shade of gray. The overall effect is a modern, geometric, and minimalist design.

A large digital display showing the number 86. The digits are rendered in a white, blocky font against a dark, textured background. The number 86 is positioned in the center of the frame.
